If (health) data of third parties are included in the application, the following consent must be submitted by the data subjects:

name of concerned person.....

Data protection consent to the processing of health data and other special categories of data:

The Students' Union at the UAS Technikum Vienna (hereinafter referred to as "HTW") offers students the opportunity to apply for financial support during the current COVID-19 pandemic.

In this context, it may happen that the student provides information on the health status (health data) of third parties (such as parents, partners,...) in order to describe their particular financial situation.

This data may only be processed with the consent of the person concerned.

I have been informed that the above-mentioned applicant has included information on my state of health in the application for financial support from the HTW and agree that the HTW may process and store this health data (data on my state of health) for the purpose of processing the application. This consent can be revoked at any time by sending an e-mail to vorsitz@htw.wien.

Data Protection Notice

For what purpose are your personal data processed?

The HTW stores and processes the data you provide in the application for the purpose of assessing your eligibility for funding and administering the approved funding.

On what legal basis is your personal data processed?

The processing of your general personal data stated in the application is based on the legal basis of a legitimate interest of the HTW. The interest of the HTW is to be able to provide students with social assistance. The processing of any health data you may have provided in the application will only take place with your consent.

To whom does the HTW pass on your personal data?

In addition to the social benefits granted by the Student Union at the UAS Technikum Vienna, other student bodies or the Austrian Student Union also provide social support.

Upon request, these organisations may provide information on the applicant (name, matriculation number, field of study, date of application, grant of application, amount of support). The sole purpose of this transmission is to avoid double funding by the HTW and the other representative structures.

In order to check that the funds are used in accordance with the guidelines, representatives of the Federal Ministry of Science and Research can inspect the data of the applicants (name, matriculation number, field of study, application date, application grant, amount of funding).

How long does the HTW keep your personal data?

Personal data is archived one year after the payout and deleted seven years after the payout. Personal data of applicants whose application was rejected will be deleted 2 years after rejection.

What rights do you have in connection with the processing of your personal data?

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) grants you as a data subject certain rights, to which we would like to draw your attention in the following.

Please note that these rights complement each other, so that you can only demand either the correction or completion of your data or its deletion.

Withdrawal of consent

If the HTW saves and processes your personal data based on your consent, you are entitled to revoke your consent at any time. However, this does not affect the legality of the processing of your data up to the time of revocation.

Right to information

You can request information on the origin, categories, storage period, recipients, the purpose of the data processed by the HTW and the type of processing.

Right of rectification and erasure

If the HTW processes data about you that is incorrect or incomplete, you can demand that it may be corrected or completed. You can also request the deletion of unlawfully processed data.

Right to restriction of processing

If it is unclear whether the data processed concerning your person is incorrect or incomplete or is processed unlawfully, you may request that the processing of your data be restricted until the issue is clarified.

Right of objection

Even if the data concerning your person is correct and complete and is processed lawfully by the HTW, you can still object to the processing of this data.
